Saving On A Salary

Working for a salary does not mean that living expenses should consume all your earnings.
The man who works week after week and spends the money as it comes is throwing away every chance of independence.
Begin saving today—pay aside a few dollars now and you will have made a start.
We pay 4 per cent. interest on all savings accounts, and this added to the principal will soon lay the foundation of a competence.

Not Many Store-Sales Are Uninfluenced by Store-Advertising!

The store-sales to-day that are uninfluenced, directly or indirectly, by store-advertising will not have amounted to ten per cent. of the total business of the day. By the direct influence of advertising is meant the sales of articles specifically advertised. By the indirect influence of advertising is meant the articles sold that are not specifically advertised, but are displayed to the customers who are drawn to the store BY THE ADVERTISED ARTICLES. In the latter case, as surely as in the first, the advertising must be credited with the sale.

Observant merchants know that this is true. They should gain courage from the knowledge to strengthen their advertising campaigns to the point of matching their store-hopes and plans.

Saturday's Ball Game—Visitors in Town—The Postmaster's Cottage—Books for Carpenters—Diphtheria Reception.

The ball game on Saturday afternoon between the Hargrove school team and the Law School team of Yale attracted considerable attention in town, and many citizens went to the grounds to witness the contest. Thanks are due to Mr. Samuel Wheeler for putting the field at the disposal of the Hargrove school boys. It is situated on the southern side of Penfield avenue, in full view of the Sound, and is a large and level ground. It has been put in good condition by the school, and on Saturday proved to be a very attractive spot. A large number of young ladies were in attendance, with the Hargrove colors, and among the other spectators were noticed Dr. Donaldson, Bacon Wake-man, Mr. Mills, the professors of the school and other citizens. The game was called at about half past three when the Law School team went to the bat. This was composed of Conner, pitcher; Addis, catcher; MacKay, first base; Kennedy, second base; Donnelly, third base; Johnson, short stop; Kuntz, right field; Leiber, left field; and Beeman, left field. The Hargrove team was as follows: Washburn pitcher; Abbott, catcher; McKinney, first base; Farley, second base; Leiber, third base; Bradford, short stop; Holloway, center field; McGarry, left field; Smith, right field. At the end of the game the score stood 11 to 5 in favor of the Yale Law School.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hyde and Mrs. Elizabeth Hyde, have returned to their Southport residence for the summer. Mrs. A. C. Muser has been entertaining Mrs. Hart of Bridgeport.

Mr. Irons, of Providence, R. I., a well known manufacturer of jewelry and Mrs. Irons, and Mr. Orrin Eddy of Washington, D. C., have recently been visiting Mr. Byron Eddy who lives on the old Glover place, near the village green.

The Sanford School of Redding, is booked to play a game of baseball in the near future with the Hargrove school of this town.

The ladies of the Greenfield Hill Country Club are represented as being well pleased with the results of their recent minstrel show. There is a report that a good sum was netted for the club treasury.

Two of our townsmen are now riding in new bicycles—Attorney Clitus King and Justice Bacon Wakeman. When the law takes a bicycle previous to a visit to see theology and medicine follow.

There is talk in town of forming a Lacrosse team.

Mr. E. R. Osborne has rented her cottage at the beach—Driftwood.

There is a rumor that our postmaster contemplates building a four room cottage on one of his lots at the beach. His daughter, Miss Mabel Pickett, has recently been replenishing her camera outfit previous to a visit of several days to New York, where she intends to get a number of snap shots.

Mr. George Palmer, from Vineland, N. J., is visiting his grandmother, Mrs. John Reid.

The Clucus family is now occupying its large summer home on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hartshorn have returned to Peterboro, Canada. It is expected that to-morrow Miss Margaret Wilson will leave for Angeles, Cal., on her way to this town, where she intends to spend the summer.

The Sunday School of the church on Greenfield Hill has recently been entertained with several talks on Turkey. Mr. L. N. Bock having had his hours at the tower of the church from 7 a. m. to 3 p. m., known as the "first trick," has had to employ a driver for his bakery delivery wagon, which supplies the center village and Southport, with home made bread, rolls and pies.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Kendal, of Roxbury, Vt., who were here with Mr. and Mrs. Byron Eddy, at their country place in town.

Mr. Flannagan is putting the house of Mr. John Lahey, Sanford avenue, into good sanitary condition, and doing the plumbing for house as well as making other improvements.

Attention of all those interested is called to the fact that the Memorial library now has a large and valuable collection of books for the use and information of carpenters and joiners.

Intends to build a cottage or repair a house, many useful suggestions can be found in these works. A few of the works are as follows: A Manual of Carpentry and Joinery, by J. W. Riley; Building Construction for Beginners; American School of Correspondence series, containing: Plastering, Carpenters' Estimating; Contracts and Specifications; Stair Building and Steel Squares; Estimating; Plastering; Practical Steam and Hot Water Heating and Ventilation, and Home Building and Furnishing.

The Dell house has been quarantined. George Dell, the youngest boy, having an attack of diphtheria.

At the reception held Friday evening by Miss Iva King there were present: Roger Smith, Helen Forsythe, Arthur and Elting Devo, Cornelia Penfield and others. Music and games with refreshments, filled up the measure of enjoyment.

If anybody ever said that Percy Hall is to marry a girl living in Greens Farms, there must have been some mistake, for Percy is so pleased with life in Southport he proposes to remain single.

The King's Daughters of the Methodist church have bought a vacuum cleaner which they hire out for money.

Mr. Sanford Jennings, who is living in Biddeford, Me., writes that the crops are not yet in the ground.

"Spring is Here."

The green grass, the flowers, the birds are all beyond a question. With the coming of the spring comes the games for the lawn, such as croquet and tennis. There will never be any question but what croquet will be played for generations as each season it is found to be one of the most interesting and entertaining games for children and adults that can be found. In many sections of the country croquet holds sway over all outdoor games except golf. One of the best games for the development of the muscles of the body is tennis. Of course this is a much livelier game than croquet but still it is played alike by ladies and gentlemen, and is a very interesting game from all viewpoints. Being bought in carload lots the price will be found to your advantage. Goods are all new and fresh. Sold at low prices at Jackson's Book shop, 986-988 Main street.

STRATFORD

The New Rectory—Author of Popular Poem—Gone to Fort Wood—Recent Entertainments—Facts About Folks

Much pleasure was expressed in town on Sunday by the members of St. James' church when the people met and talked over the news seen on Saturday in the Farmer, regarding the recent transfer of the Cogswell property to Father O'Connor for a parish house. The great question has now been settled to the satisfaction of the public, and the "rumor of a very important deal in the way of a property transfer" has been confirmed. Indeed, there never was the least reason for keeping the matter a secret, since all the dealings were open and above board, and it has long been known that the Cogswell house would make a very desirable rectory. As Dr. Cogswell says, his family is small and does not need so large a house, which contains many rooms, and was originally built by Mr. Olney, the one time famous author of a series of school geographies. Just now the doctor will give himself to the study of plans for a new house, and it will be erected as soon as possible. Some alterations will be made in the big yellow mansion before it is occupied as a rectory by Father O'Connor. After his removal in it will be easy to begin the demolition of the old rectory, and prepare the ground for the new church. And this will stimulate the parishioners of St. James' as well as the non-Catholic friends of the enterprise, to help forward the project with their support and subscriptions.

A South Carolina clergyman, Rev. S. A. Maxwell, has begun revival services at the First Baptist church. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. George are rejoicing in the arrival on Saturday morning of a 10 pound boy.

Someone recently asked in a New York paper who wrote a poem called "The Master Stood in His Garden." It is sung in all the churches, and is very popular, but few people know that Mrs. Jude Curtis of this town, when she was Miss Amy Talbot, is the authoress.

Rev. Mr. Bullock and D. E. Bliss left today for Eedley's Island, New York, where they have an order to equip the storerooms of Fort Wood with the thermostat fire extinguisher. This is a large order and shows that the government is beginning to recognize the usefulness of this Stratford invention.

Mrs. Fred Holmes of South Main street gave a large, brilliant and select musical on Friday evening. Among other attractions were three Scotch bagpipe players from New York. Guests were present from New York, New Haven, Newburg and Bridgeport.

Herbert Doolittle's "small party," as announced, proved to be quite a large and enjoyable affair. It was given for the Minnehaha Club and many other friends. Of course the host was "genial" and what was one of the attractions of the evening.

The funeral of the late Charles Lyman was attended by Rev. F. A. Dillingham of Bridgeport. The remains have been sent to Long Island to be cremated.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Wilcox, of Bruce avenue, have just given a whist party to the Azalia Chapter, O. E. S. We need that the prizes were both pretty and useful.

A new school roll has been invented called the "roll for high standing." This contrivance the honor rolls which merely record tardy and absence marks.

The Cupheag Club will give the arrangements for the coming supper in to the hands of the same committee as last year.

It is hoped that Otis Curtis does not intend to leave town. He hopes to rent his house on Long Brook avenue, which looks as if he had serious intentions.

Thursday evening a few friends dropped in to spend an hour or so with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dufour, and listen to the music.

We hear that a very fine tennis court is being laid out on Clapboard Hill. Selectman Stacey has been at work on the job.

There is great spring activity on Sutton avenue. Men have been seen at work on the place owned by William Beard.

Not to be out of the fashion, Frederick K. Beach is having a tennis court constructed.

Mr. Hanson has put a new balance wheel on his ice cream motor, to be ready for the rush when the cream season really opens.

The Young man who got on the term list in the 3d grade, Franklin school, had the strange name of Georgeshrudiu. That would make a good college yell.

Decoration Day is no near at hand that an invitation has already been issued that the veterans and their sons, residing in this town, attend a patriotic service at the First Methodist church in Bridgeport.

Mrs. Frank L. Patterson contemplates giving a whist at the Colonna rooms for the benefit of the proposed Girls' Club building in Bridgeport.

Next Sunday there will be special services at the Christ church for the dedication of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.

In the game of baseball on Saturday between the University School team of Bridgeport and the High School team of this town, the former won by a score of 22 to 1.
